FEATURES

PRESS MORE.
PAUSE LESS.

Introducing

NovaLift

NovaLift reimagines how force is applied. By lifting upward into the press, Astra X2 works in harmony with gravity — creating a balanced, controlled motion engineered for consistency. It's a deliberate approach to pressure, designed to feel as solid as it performs.

DUAL PLATENS

The ASTRA X2 is engineered for continuous workflow. Its dual-platen layout eliminates idle time by allowing operators to load one platen while the other presses. The result is higher throughput, faster order completion, and production efficiency built for growing shops.

PNEUMATIC POWER

Powered by a pneumatic pressure system, the ASTRA X2 delivers consistent, repeatable pressure across every press cycle. This ensures clean transfers, reliable adhesion, and professional results at scale without operator fatigue.

BUILT FOR SPEED

Designed for shops transitioning from entry-level equipment to full production mode, the ASTRA X2 increases presses per hour and reduces downtime between cycles. It turns production hours into measurable output.

MADE IN THE USA

Manufactured in the USA with durable, production-ready components, the ASTRA X2 is designed to withstand daily commercial use. Stability, longevity, and performance are at the core of its build.

BUILT FOR GROWTH

Built for print businesses moving from garage setups to dedicated shop environments, the ASTRA X2 supports expanding order volumes without compromising speed or quality. It is a true growth-stage press.

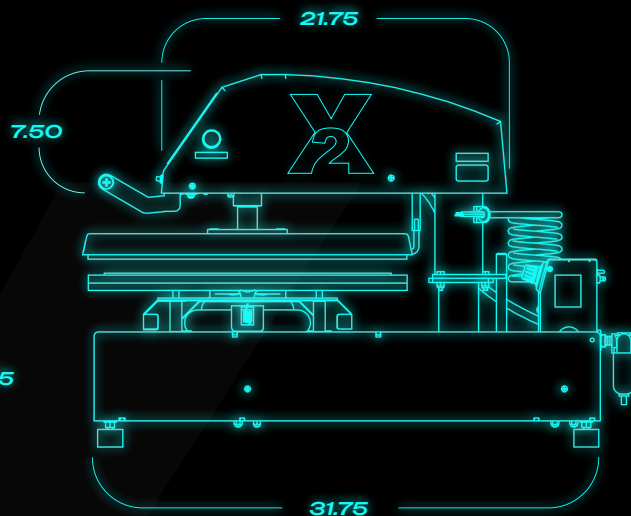

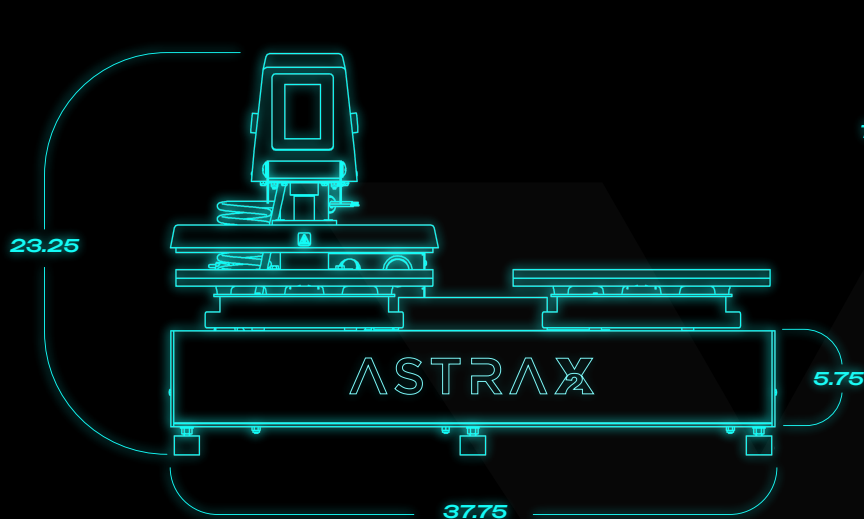

BUILT TO RAISE THE STANDARD — TWICE.
